

Let XM radio provide this service and compete fairly. If the radio industry can't stand some competition--find another business. XM radio has every right to provide this valuable service to the consumer.